

FORT BRANCH

Civil War Site

*Hamilton,
North Carolina*

Explore Fort Branch Civil War Site

Overlooking the Roanoke River at Rainbow Banks, Fort Branch was built in 1861 to guard against Union gunboats.

Today, visitors can explore preserved earthworks and historic artifacts while enjoying annual reenactments, a Civil War Christmas, and seasonal living history programs.

Historic Fort Branch

Explore Martin County

Photos by Carolina Psalms

Historic Fort Branch

2883 Fort Branch Rd.
Oak City, NC 27857

fortbranchcivilwarsite.com

Explore Martin County

415 East Blvd
Williamston, NC 27892

exploremartincounty.com